

QUALITY, ENVIRONMENT, PREVENTION AND ENERGY POLICY

MOLECOR

MOLECOR is a company specialized in "solutions for infrastructure, sewage, and building." It is a large industrial project with a strong emphasis on technological innovation, efficient water use, and internationalization.

MOLECOR's purpose is to improve the quality of life for people everywhere in the world, bringing affordable water within their reach through innovative, efficient and sustainable solutions. The Integrated Management System for Quality, Environment, Prevention, and Energy establishes the following PRINCIPLES:

- Understand the NEEDS, REQUIREMENTS, AND EXPECTATIONS OF OUR CLIENTS to guarantee their complete satisfaction.
- Guarantee compliance with the applicable LEGAL AND REGULATORY REQUIREMENTS, as well as any other voluntary requirement that MOLECOR identifies concerning product or service quality, with the environment, with the safety and health at work and those related to energy efficiency, use and consumption.
- Promote continuous improvement, ensuring the future and development of the company by strengthening identified processes and risk management.
- Actively commit to environmental protection and pollution prevention through sustainable production and use of resources.
- Achieve the highest level of protection of the integrity of people through the identification and minimization of risks in all their activities, prevention of accidents, and professional diseases in the work environment.
- Support the acquisition of energy-efficient products and services that contribute to improving our environmental and energy performance, as well as design activities considering energy performance improvement.
- Work for sustainable development, creating value for all our stakeholders, aligning our management strategies with the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) of the United Nations.

The Management is committed to promoting awareness and responsibility regarding quality, environmental protection, safety and health and energy management, involving all company employees and ensuring the availability of all necessary information and resources.

It must be a commitment of all MOLECOR personnel to follow the principles to achieve the strategic Objectives, in accordance with the established Purpose and Values.
